Rebecca Myers Collection, a Baltimore-based boutique jewelry studio, blends time honored techniques to produce refined, chic and feminine designs. Rebecca finds sublime beauty in natural forms. Her pieces embrace the materials and artistry of fine crafted jewelry, but also capture a contrast in materials and the dichotomy of dark-ness and light inherent in nature. Rebecca works in high karat gold and oxidized silver, and often uses diamonds to achieve a dusting effect rather than being the focus of her work. Each piece of jewelry is designed by Rebecca herself and produced in her studio.
